Industry and Scarce

By Tim Greene

Andover may be out of industrially developable land by 1990, according to a recent industrial land inventory as interpreted by Lawrence Spiegel, chairman of the industrial development commission.

"In ten more years there will be no more land for industrial development," Spiegel said Monday.

Of the 1839.81 acres of land in Andover zoned for industry, only 238 were termed "readily developable," and the actual buildable land may be less because of wetland protection.

"I operate on the theory that there may be 150, maybe 200 acres that is industrially developable, which is not flood plain and on which the town can have some influence," said Spiegel, a 13-year member of the industrial development commission.

Though he thinks the industrial land is dwindling, he expects industrial development for the next few years to be comparable to 1978.

"It was a very successful year," said Spiegel, "I'm seeing the same thing this year, and I'm looking for a big push in 1980."

"Just sitting here and answering the phone," he continued, "I can see five major potential transactions coming up which we'd probably hit in 1980."

One of these is the sale of 180 acres west of Route 93 on the Tewksbury line, now zoned residential. If October town meeting rezones the tract, Andover Country Club developer Yvon Cormier plans to sell it to "a major industrial developer," Spiegel said.

The area would be used for "light assembly, district business offices — there's a need in town for it," according to Spiegel.

Spiegel termed land "readily developable" if according to the industrial land inventory, it was vacant, accessible and the owner was willing to lease or sell it to an industry. There were several vacant, industrially zoned sites not classified as readily developable, the Arkwright/Boston land in west Andover being the largest.

Arkwright/Boston's 432 acres there was not included because the firm has set a pattern of bringing in large industries which they solicit at their own rate. The town can have little influence on them.

Hewlett-Packard and Polaroid are both on Arkwright/Boston land.

An industrially zoned 60-acre triangle of land on the Lawrence city line, north of the railroad tracks and Sutherland Street, can not be developed immediately. It is essentially landlocked, Spiegel said, because there are no access roads to it on which industrial traffic can legally flow.

Access now would have to come through a residential area or cross the railroad tracks, both of which are illegal.

Spiegel said the problems might be worked out, but not immediately. He said the town might want to look into purchasing it for conservation or park land. The 60

Rowing Season Ends On Smoother Waters

By Linda S. Corbett

A rowing season that was fraught with ups and downs came to a happy ending last month for members of Phillips Academy's girls rowing team, and the two local girls who were on it.

An Andover "Four with Cox" won a silver medal in the junior division of the women's National Championships in Detroit, the only American boat to win a medal. The Canadian National team, the cream of that country's crewing crop, took first.

The Andover crew then teamed with girls from other schools in the "Eights," and brought home the bronze for third place.

The two local girls were Kathy Lyons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Lyons of Phillips Street, Andover, and Beth Rokous, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Rokous, Johnson Street, North Andover.

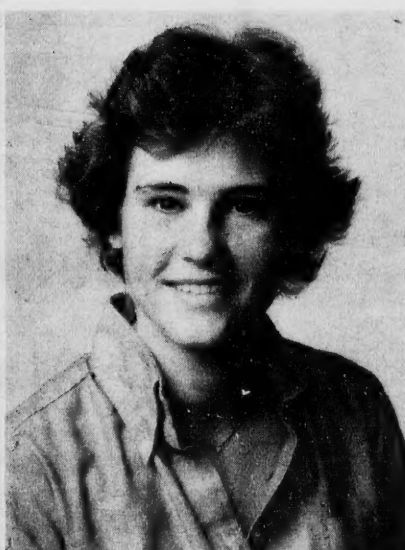

Kathy, who will be a junior, is looking toward the world meet next summer in Belgium. Last summer, after only one year of crewing, she was a member of the team that went to the World's in Belgrade, Yugoslavia. She's keeping in shape this summer by working as a janitor at P.A. Beth graduated from P.A. in June, and will be attending Smith College in the fall.

The P.A. season got off to a devastating start when vandals tore into the boathouse on the Merrimack River and destroyed much of the equipment. Other schools loaned spare boats and a determined crew recovered to row undefeated through their basic races.

Greatly favored at the New England Interscholastic Races in Worcester, they

Computer Meeting Needs

By Robert E. Finneran
Editor

A second application has been placed on the town's new data processing system.

The budget for the fiscal 1979-'80 has been placed on line and accounts payable will now be processed through the computer, according to Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark.

The accounts payable processing joins payroll accounting which has been on line for several months.

Clark said that while "we have not moved as quickly as I would like in introducing applications, the process is moving along reasonably well and I am satisfied with the progress to date."

The new systems, approved for purchase by the October town meeting were installed in December and work on the machinery began to be introduced the first of the year.

The manager said there are two more applications to be introduced soon, one dealing with police record keeping and criminal activity analysis, and also accounts receivable to include real estate tax billing. The latter application will depend on the ability to convert the records and functions performed by a service bureau to the town's machinery.

Clark said the new systems will provide the town with tighter controls over the budgetary operations and analysis of accounts and "remove some of the surprises," such as reaching the end of the year with less funds than anticipated in some accounts. Such things were happening with the old accounting machinery, which was unable to keep up with the growth of the town's budget.

That not all applications desired are on line, is not a disturbing thing at the moment, the manager said, noting it takes time for systems analysis work on computers and also time for department heads to become familiar with procedures.

Establishing procedures, formulas and specific records to be applied to the new system and coming to agreement on how these things should be handled understandably takes time, the manager said.

Basically it amounts to training the town staff to work with the computer, Clark pointed out.

"I am very pleased with the system. While it doesn't have all the enhancements one might like to have, it is doing a very good basic job. In time program budgeting will be possible, but this management tool will not be implemented for a while, or until we get the imperative applications on line and working well," Clark said.

Bonds Called To Complete Work

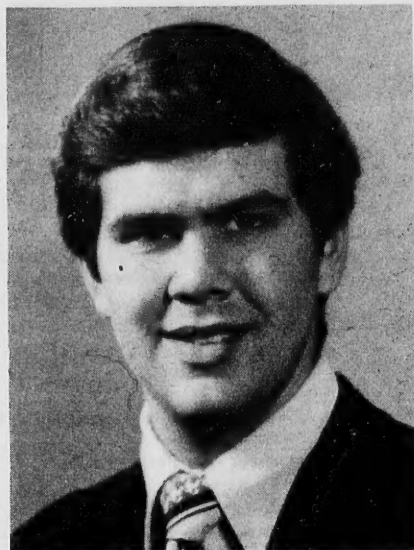

Selectmen authorized the town manager to call in about $87,000 in bonds to pay for completing improvements to two subdivisions which developers left unfinished. An $81,000 bond can now be called on improvements in the Essexwood subdivision on River Road and a $6,000 bond can be called on the Buchan Road subdivision east of Route 125.

Drainage work, water lines, and street surfacing are among the work which needs completion in the Essexwood subdivision. The property is now owned by the Essex Broadway Savings Bank, which foreclosed on a mortgage taken on the subdivision by Dennis Stackhouse, according to Community Development Director Rhys Kear. No work has been done on the site for about a year, Kear said, and depreciation of some completed work has taken place. Street and water line problems have to be worked out on the Buchan Street subdivision. Kear said the bond there had already been extended once and possibly twice to Ed Freitas, the developer. Kear said the bonds would "just cover the costs" of completing the improvements. The town will have to contract for the work to be done. Developers must post bonds with the town to cover the cost of completing work they promise to do, but which they may be unable to complete. Kear likened the bonds to an insurance policy.

Algonquin Ave. To Be Signed

Residents of Algonquin Avenue won their request Monday night for traffic signs to restrict traffic flow on their street.

Signs to be requested are: three "Stop" signs, one at each end of Algonquin Avenue and one at the corner of Commanche and Algonquin; three speed limit signs; a "No Right-Hand Turn" sign at the intersection of Algonquin and Iroquois on Algonquin; and a "No Left-Hand Turn" sign at Algonquin and Iroquois on Iroquois.

Selectman James Abramson said the success of the signs at controlling traffic depends on early enforcement and word-of-mouth notification of residents.

The first award was for $12,471,714 for the procurement of high-powered illumination model kits. All the work for this contract will be performed at the Andover Raytheon site, Shannon said.

The second award totaled $51,846,947. Shannon said that this contract was for 19 items of ground support equipment for the improved Hawk missile system. About 75 percent of the work for this contract will be done at the Andover site also, Shannon added.

"The continued growth of technological firms in this area is a crucial element in my effort to improve the business climate of the Fifth District. I will do everything possible to help this trend to continue," Shannon concluded.

Employee Donors Honored

At a recognition ceremony last week, representatives of Bon Secours Hospitals Employee Blood Drive and the Northeast Regional Red Cross Blood Program, honored 30 hospital employees, including several Andover residents for their contributions of one gallon or more of blood to the area's emergency blood needs.

"You're particularly special to us," Gary Corbett, supervisor of donor resources for the Northeast Regional Red Cross Blood Program, told the group. "You're part of the 3 percent of the population in this country that gives blood. But more than that, you've given a lot of blood."

Dr. H. Richard Hinrichs, hospital pathologist and medical director of the Northeast Regional program, praised the employees for their valued concern and support for the hospital's blood program, urging them to continue their great service to the community.

Receiving certificates from Andover were: William Lane, Virginia Cahill, Kathleen Sheehy and Virginia Wallace.

A special plaque was awarded to Ruth O'Carroll, director of Communications at Bon Secours, for her work in promoting the blood program at the Hospital.

RATES CHANGE EACH WEEK. The annual percentage rate is set for each week and remains constant for the 26 weeks of your term. The annual percentage rate may not be the same when you renew. The effective annual yield is the equivalent rate that your money would earn if your principal and interest were to remain on deposit for a full year. Federal regulations prohibit compounding of interest on this account. A substantial penalty is required for early withdrawal.

That's Judith Elephante smiling from the passenger-side window of the Miller Disposal truck hired by Andover Recycling, Inc. to collect dry paper and glass. Mrs. Elephante and other volunteers will guide the truck drivers through the town while learning the recycling route. They'll be picking up only clear glass next week, no tin cans will be collected.

School Board Vacancy Guidelines Discussed

Selectmen agreed Monday night to schedule a date when they can meet with the School Committee to select a new member to replace School Committeeman Casimir Kolaski who resigned last month.

Selectmen anticipated a problem scheduling a meeting when the full board could meet with the school committee because of vacation plans.

Acting chairman James Abramson asked for suggestions from the board about what requirements to look for in considering applicants.

Selectman Norma Gammon said she would like to see a committeeman with a strong business background. Selectman Susan T. Poore wanted the replacement to have children in the school system, and to have lived in Andover for some time. "Someone from outside" might be qualified she said, but might not be familiar with Andover's educational philosophy.

Railroad Museum

The Railroad Museum, Depot Road, Chatham, is open Monday through Friday, 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. One room contains railroad artifacts and documents in a former 9th century railroad station. There's also a 70-year-old New York Central freight caboose. There is no charge for admission.

Selectman Lawrence Sullivan suggested that since the term was so short, perhaps no replacement should be made. That idea met with support from the other members of the board, but Town Clerk Elden Salter pointed out that the law states that a replacement must be appointed.

Abramson suggested the applicant have a knowledge of finances and of computers, "at least knowing what it is computers can do," he said.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark said there are two applications on file for the position now. The board suggested that the selection not be limited to those who apply, but be spread to those who are recommended either by the selectmen or the school committee.

Abramson said he would contact School Committee Chairman Elaine Viehmann to set up a time for the two groups to meet.

A GOOD BUY

Since everybody is so conscious of what they should spend their money for these days, we thought we'd pass along some thoughts made recently by an economic analyst on family spending.

He said in his opinion, among the best buys today are furniture and other home furnishings—and his reason is that one should consider the knowledge that furniture and home furnishings last longer and therefore give the purchaser a longer run for his money.

He said it makes sense to him to put money into something of a permanent or semi-permanent nature such as furniture, where the cost is authorized over a long period of time, and where you get continued pleasure from it.

He also brought out the point that it makes sense to put one's money into a place where people spend as much time as they do in their homes.

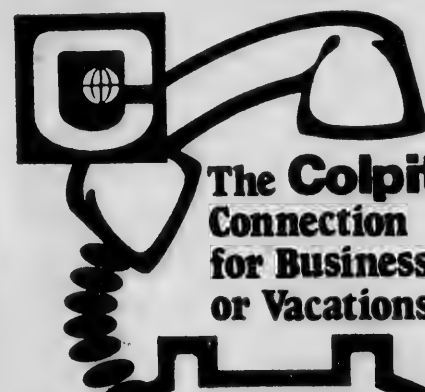

In any case, whether you're thinking about economics or simply the comfort and beauty of your home, remember that we not only have good furniture values and selection, but we're aware of helping you consider your budget, and getting you the most for your money.

For Those Of Us Who Are Older

By Janet D. Lake

Bingo! Bingo! Bingo! Every Friday afternoon at the air-conditioned Haven. Not much in the way of prizes, but lots of fun and excitement! The next movie at The Haven is Monday afternoon at 1:30, July 9. The film is a feature length Disney comedy starring Yvette Mieux, Dean Jones and the perennial favorite, Maurice Chevalier.

The summer hot lunch program will start July 9 at West Elementary School at noon. Call The Haven to make your reservation. Transportation is available.

The next mini-clinic will be held Tuesday July 10 at Chestnut Court, 2-4 p.m. If you wish to take advantage of this free service, call the Board of Health to let them know. Appointment times are no longer scheduled, but reservations are necessary so that records can be prepared and made available.

You don't get too hot, you just have fun at Line Dancing Tuesday afternoons at The Haven. You don't need to know how, you don't need a partner, it's that easy. It's super exercise and thoroughly enjoyable. Plan to come! All the July birthday people are invited to a party in their honor July 11 at 2 p.m. Entertainment will be provided by The Haven Singers under the direction of Helen Robinson.

Put your traveling shoes on for a day in Portsmouth, N.H., Thursday, July 12. The total cost for the day is $16 for which you will get your transportation, a visit to Strawberry Banke — the colonial restoration, lunch at Yoken's and then a cruise out to the Isle of Shoals, with everyone back in Andover by 5:30. There is something special on this trip to please everyone. But you must let the Haven know you want to go. Do it right now!

The July Council on Aging meeting will be held Monday, July 16 at 9:30 a.m. instead of the usual Tuesday because of "The Day in the Park," scheduled for Tuesday. This annual special event will be held at the Phillip's Academy Bird Sanctuary and will feature games and a cookout. The annual 45's tournament will be held there, too. Get you ticket for $1 at The Haven. Transportation will be available. Because of "The Day in the Park" there will be no hot lunch that day. Come to the cookout instead.

On July 19 you have the opportunity to go to Rockport for the day. You may browse through the shops on Bear Skin Neck and have lunch at a place of your own choosing. Transportation will cost you $4.50 — the rest is up to you.

You may look for the July newsletter at your local bank or supermarket now.

Don't Burst Her Bubble

Eleven-year-old Candice Kirkles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Kirkles, 11 Pasho St., sits atop the high bar at Doherty School and blows bubbles in the shade, enjoying her summer vacation. She is one of the participants in the summer playground program run by the department of community services.

Grigoli Found Guilty

Former Andover School Music Director Edward P. Grigoli was found guilty of larceny in excess of $100 by a Salem Superior Court jury last Friday afternoon.

The charges resulted from Grigoli's taking of between $10,000 and $20,000 worth of musical instruments and supplies from the school system over a period of time.

Judge Francis L. Lappin sentenced Grigoli to a six-month jail sentence which was suspended and the defendant placed on probation for two years. He was allowed to serve his probation in Sarasota, Fla., where he now resides.

Essex County Assistant District Atty. Jane Haggerty asked the court to impose a $600 fine in addition to the sentence, but Judge Lappin denied the request.

Atty. Thomas Collins represented Grigoli.

In addition to the court case concluded last week, Grigoli will face further action in regard to his pension. The music director was asked to resign his position when evidence of the missing instruments and supplies was determined by Supt. of Schools Kenneth R. Seifert.

An initial hearing on Grigoli's pension rights has been held and another scheduled sometime in the near future. Retirement payments are controlled by the state.

Mrs. Cole To Be A Registrar

Virginia Cole will be recommended for a position on the board of registrars of voters at the next meeting of the board of selectmen, Town Clerk Elden Salter told the board Monday night.

Salter said that at the last placement of members of the board of registrars, it was mentioned that "it would be nice" if a woman were appointed. He said he had been looking for a qualified woman since then, and that Virginia Cole was it.

The board of registrars of voters have the responsibility of overseeing the town's election processes.

A group of Shawsheen residents, headed by Friends of Shawsheen president James Sellers, met with selectmen Monday night to protest construction of a Dunkin' Donuts shop at Shawsheen manor, but they could not be heard by the selectmen.

An applicant for a building permit and victuallers license, according to Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark, has the right to be heard by selectmen without prejudice. Comments by the Shawsheen residents before the builder of the proposed Dunkin' Donut shop is heard could be interpreted as prejudicing the selectmen.

So the residents of Shawsheen limited their comments to procedural questions about how a builder goes about securing permits for such a facility.

Don Bancroft, 20 Argyle St., said it seemed strange to issue a building permit for a restaurant when the building may never be used as such because of problems obtaining a victualler's license.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark said building permits have to be issued if the structure proposed fulfills all zoning and building code requirements. Victualler's license requirements are separate.

The builder of the proposed donut shop has already filed for a building permit, according to community development, director Rhys Kear.

Selectman James Abramson suggested that someone tell the builder that Shawsheen residents will try to block the donut shop before he goes ahead with construction.

"Let the applicant know there will be large scale opposition all the way," Abramson said.

Taxi Fare Increase Approved

Selectmen approved a fare hike for Andover Morrissey Taxi, the only taxi service now licensed to do business in Andover.

The minimum rate approved by selectmen Monday night was $1.75, up from the $1.50 minimum set six years ago.

Selectmen approved the fare raises, saying they could believe the rising cost of fuel made them necessary. No one represented the Morrissey Taxi at the meeting.

Selectman Lawrence Sullivan said he did not expect to see any more requests for taxi fare increases for several years. "If he's back in here two months from now, there'll be a much harder, much closer look at this," Sullivan said.

Rates for the following trips were raised as listed. (All trips originate at Town Hall.)

A trip to West Elementary school costs $2.50, up from $2. A ride to Ballardvale is $3.25 and to North Andover center is $3.75, both representing raises of 50 cents.

To go to Essex Street, Lawrence, costs $4.25, up from $3.50. It costs $5 to get to Valle's Steak House, up from $4, and the fare to Methuen is up to $5.50 from $4.50.

To ride to Kitty's in North Reading costs $6, and it costs $6.25 to get to the St. Francis Monastery, River Road, both a raise of $1.25.

The fare to Bon Secours Hospital costs $7.50 now, a $1.50 increase. A ride to the Reading railroad station was raised by $2.25, from $9 to $11.25.

Playground Season Underway

Andover's Summer Playground program, sponsored by the Department of Community Services, got underway last week with the usual fare of games and cookouts, a '50's day, arts and crafts, and some new enrichment programs to boot.

Interesting Numbers

A couple of items in last week's TOWNSMAN reveal some interesting statistics with which planners and school building officials will be considering.

The school building people will be initiating studies to determine population patterns among other things as they work on providing the town with a total school construction project in the coming months.

An indication of how difficult it might be to get an adequate projection of the town's growth is found in another story which reported on the planning board reviewing a couple of subdivision plans containing 116 house lots.

The continued development in the town is bound to affect the school building problems.

A majority of those proposed new houses will be going into the Shawsheen area, which, of course, sheds a different light on the status of the elementary school there.

No doubt, the new studies to be done for the school building committee, will include not only these proposed house lots, but other areas in the community which are also being eyed by developers.

Such major developments also have an effect on the community development and planning department. As indicated at the hearings on the proposals a week ago, there are already problems such as road construction traffic considerations, and drainage problems which must be examined before such subdivisions are given approval.

What is evident in all of this, is that Andover will continue to grow and the official family must be cognizant of the effect such growth will have on the community as a whole.

Even in the face of changing economic conditions, the town will continue to experience major new home construction. It was not many years ago that mortgage money was hard to come by and other economic factors indicated a slowdown in the home buying markets. But even in those times, construction continued and Andover had its nearly 200 new homes per year built and sold.

Under such circumstances, it will be interesting to see what population projections are forthcoming at the conclusion of this new study being compiled for the school building committee and what statistics are included.

Difficult But Commendable

The school committee for the second time within a month was called upon to support the administration in meting out punishment to students.

Decisions to expel students, we are sure, are difficult to make, but in some cases must be done.

The latest incident resulted in two youths involved in burning a cross on the lawn of the high school, being expelled with the necessity to petition the school committee for reentrance.

The action has little to do with any court proceedings which may have followed the incident at the high school. The burning and pulling of a false alarm followed the drug arrests early in June.

Fact of the matter is that the school department has rules and regulations which must be followed by the students. That such regulations are enforced and disciplinary action supported by the school committee is commendable.

It indicates to one and all that the school environment will be protected for those in pursuit of education and that vandalism, disorder, errant behavior or general disturbance will not be tolerated.

Mid-Air Reunion

To The Editor of the TOWNSMAN
TWA Flight #186 out of Denver was peaceful. We had had lunch and I was dozing. Suddenly, I was poked by my husband who said to a sleepy me: "get a look at the pilot coming down the aisle. Doesn't he look like Bob Hamilton class of '45 of Punchard High School?" As he came closer I stopped him — sure that I would be embarrassed and he'd say "sorry lady," but no — it was Bob and so he and I had our 34th class reunion at 37,000 feet in the air over Illinois.

This is the first one I had ever been to but somehow I always pictured a reunion with a band, cocktails, etc.

Uncle Sam and the Flu Vaccines: Are Cures Worse Than the Ills?

WASHINGTON — Uncle Sam is determined to protect us from the flu, even if it causes an outbreak of other ailments.

In 1976, the government conducted a massive campaign to immunize the public against swine flu. Millions of people submitted to the shots. But the program was a fiasco, and many of those who took the vaccine got sick. Some were paralyzed. There were a few deaths. Claims against the government have reached the $3 million mark.

Yet the bureaucrats, undaunted, spent more millions preparing the nation's defense against Russian flu last year. But the Russian plague, except for a few mild cases, never struck. Instead, Americans were hit by the Brazilian flu.

The Russian flu vaccine, unhappily, was worthless against Brazilian flu. Some scientists claim it's worthless against Russian flu, for that matter. In any event, millions of doses were wasted.

Now, the Health, Education and Welfare Department is issuing dire new warnings. Another flu epidemic, they say, is threatening the nation in 1980. Whether it will be Russian or Brazilian flu, the officials are not saying. But Secretary Joseph Califano wants $10 million to $15 million for flu prevention in 1980.

But this time, the White House is challenging the program. President Carter's science adviser, Frank Press, fired off a private letter to Califano, raising questions and expressing doubts. "The estimated lives to be saved," wrote Press, "are exaggerated ... and the rhetoric of the campaign may make millions feel unprotected."

It may be safer, in short, to take our chances with the flu rather than with the government's remedies.

Ford-Reagan Battle? The two final contenders for the 1976 Republican presidential nomination may attempt a comeback in 1980. Gerald Ford won the nomination from Ronald Reagan after a bitter battle.

Betty Ford extracted a promise from her husband that he would retire from politics after he lost the presidency in 1976. But family friends now tell us that she has changed her mind. Following her treatment for alcohol and drug abuse, one source said, "She is a new woman."

She has released her husband from his promise, say our sources, and has encouraged him to seek the 1980 nomination. Said one friend of the popular and candid Betty: "She would set Washington on fire."

Nevertheless, Gerald Ford has no intention of fighting for the nomination. But he would accept it eagerly, our sources say, if party leaders decide he is the best compromise candidate.

Ronald Reagan, meanwhile, is maneuvering behind the scenes for the nomination. He has even made overtures to repair his relations with Ford. Reagan called Ford, for example, to discuss the SALT II treaty. Reagan explained that he wanted Ford's ideas before he made up his own mind on the treaty.

Reagan is also trying to mend fences with party leaders who are still disgruntled over his refusal to accept the vice presidential nomination. They believe Ford would have been elected with Reagan on the ticket.

Reagan now contends that he didn't turn down the nomination. The reason he never accepted it, he now claims, is that it was never offered to him.

That isn't the way we remember it. During the 1976 convention, sources slipped us a copy of a confidential note that Reagan sent to members of his home-state California delegation. It stated: "There is no circumstance whatsoever under which I would accept the nomination for vice president. That is absolutely final." It was signed, Ronald Reagan.

Watch on Waste: Inmates of the federal prisons are allowed free mailing privileges, and last year this cost the taxpayers $1.2 million. One prisoner took advantage of the system to dispatch letters to all 535 members of the House and Senate; another used his free mailing privileges to solicit contributions for his presidential campaign. Prison officials have now decided to cut down on the waste. Beginning July 1, federal inmates will receive only five first-class stamps a month — a savings to the taxpayers of some $800,000.

General Accounting Office investigators have determined that HEW Secretary Joseph Califano's "stop-smoking" campaign has cost the public a bundle. Califano, a zealous former smoker himself, offered his employees the opportunity to take government-sponsored kick-the-habit courses on government time. It added up, says the GAO, to an $80,000 loss for the taxpayers.

Just Following Orders: Federal narcotics agents recently nabbed a suspected drug-smuggling ship, but the crooks got away. Drug Enforcement Administration officials had asked the Coast Guard to monitor the movements of the freighter and the ship was dutifully followed into the New York City harbor. But as the Coast Guard looked on, the crew members slipped away one by one. Embarrassed Coast Guard officials lamely explained that they were asked to watch the ship, but no one told them to watch the crew, too.

Flighty Bureaucrats: Because federal employees come and go so often, the Federal Executive Telephone Directory must be updated every two months. There are 27,000 entries in the book and 22 percent to 26 percent change with every issue. Six of the directory's employees spend half their time calling every entry in the book to see if it is still correct.

New Coin Due For Release

On July 2nd the Susan B. Anthony dollar coin will become part of the nation's money supply. The Bureau of the Mint has shipped over 500 million of the new coins to the nation's Federal Reserve Banks; the Boston Fed has been filling member bank orders for the coin since early June, and on July 2nd they will be released to the public for the first time.

The coin, featuring the famous suffragist on its face, has been designed with consumer acceptance in mind. It is smaller and weighs less than previous dollar coins. The new coin is slightly larger than a quarter in diameter and just one-tenth of an ounce heavier in weight. The coin features an eleven-sided inner border which distinguishes it from the quarter by touch as well as by sight.

Three Graduate From Nazareth

Jo-Ellen Eldred

Jane Helen Kearn

Ellen M. Perocchi

Three Andover girls were among the May graduates of Our Lady of Nazareth Academy in Wakefield.

Jo-Ellen Eldred, daughter of Mrs. Elynor Eldred, 30B Washington Park Drive, was a member of the yearbook staff and the school musical at Nazareth. She plans to major in biology at the University of Tampa, Fla.

Jane Helen Kearn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren F. Kearn, 394 High Plain Road, was a member of the cast of the senior play, and held a parttime job. She will major in secretarial sciences at Castleton Junior College, Windham, N.H.

Ellen M. Perocchi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Perocchi, 144 Chestnut St., was honored in the 1979 edition of Who's Who Among High School Students. She plans to major in science at the University of Vermont at Burlington.

Discounts For Elders At Rock

A special reduced admission charge for "Senior Citizens" will again be in effect this season at Rockingham Park where the 47th consecutive summer thoroughbred meeting is slated to start on Thursday, July 5.

The general admission charge for the 64-day meeting will remain at $1.50 for the grandstand and $2.50 for the clubhouse.

However, "Senior Citizens" with proper identification will be admitted for .75¢ at all grandstand gates and at the clubhouse gates for $1.75. The special rate will apply to anyone who is 65 years of age or older.

As in past seasons, bus service to the track will be in effect from nearly every major city in the surrounding area. Rockingham will also continue its long standing tradition of free parking thus remaining the only major thoroughbred track in the nation that extends the parking courtesy to the racing public.

There will be, however, a limited number of preferred parking spaces at both the clubhouse and grandstand entrances for a nominal $1.00 charge.

Rockingham patrons will also be able to take advantage of the free mini bus and surrey service from all areas of the parking lot to each of the three entrance gates.

The mini busses and surrey service will operate throughout the racing program

Some Openings Left For Little League Trip

Any boy in Greater Lawrence between the ages of 9-15 who is interested in going on a nine-day journey to Williamsport, Pa., to witness the Little League World Series should contact Trip Director Frank Monette immediately. There are still openings left but are being taken on a first-come first-serve basis.

The trip will be Aug. 18 to 26 at a cost of $95, plus some part in fund raising. Anyone wishing to bypass the fund raising will pay $135.

Monette, a long time coach in Andover, has organized the trip for the past 10 years, and has four chaperones ready to take part. Last year 20 youngsters and three chaperones made the trip.

On the first day of the trip the group stops at the Basketball Hall Of Fame in Springfield, Mass. The first three days will be spent at the Pine Grove Motel in Cooperstown, N.Y., which is set between the Adirondack and Catskill Mountains. Cooperstown is where the first game of baseball was played in 1839, at Doubleday Field, and where the National Baseball Hall Of Fame and Museums are now located.

On the fourth day of the trip, the group will leave Cooperstown for Williamsport, Pa., for the Little League World Series.

The group will stay at the Hemlock Motel in Trout Run, Pa., in the Pocono Mountains for the remainder of the trip. The motel is 10 miles from where the Little League Games are played and the group will have use of basketball and tennis courts, swimming pool, baseball field with lights for night games and golf, plus use of the Y.M.C.A. in Williamsport, Pa., for a day. The boys will get a chance to play ball and other sports activities every day of the trip, in the beautiful Pennsylvania country surrounded by mountains.

At Williamsport (home headquarters of Little League Baseball) the boys will witness the finest Little League players in the world, from South America, Canada, Germany, China, Japan, Europe and the United States, compete for the World Championship.

The cost of the trip includes all meals, motels, transportation, tolls, gas, tours, activities, and World Series Games. Last year boys from Andover, North Reading, Lawrence and Methuen signed up for the trip and some of the boys are going again this year.

Registration forms may be obtained at the Andover Hockey Shop, and there will be a meeting at the West Parish Church vestry in Andover July 9 for those who seek more information, or wish to participate as a chaperone.

Off The Soccer Fields

By She Livermore

The Andover Country Club was the setting for the social held on June 15 to celebrate the end of the Andover Soccer Association's evening of fun, during which they danced to the music provided by The Perfections, or took the opportunity to strengthen friendships formed during the season on the soccer fields.

Every table was decorated with a black and white centerpiece holding flowers as well as replicas of soccer balls; these were awarded to the oldest person at the table at the conclusion of the festivities.

A buffet was served during the evening, prepared by the social committee in cooperation with Barcelo's. Victor J. Mill III then addressed the gathering, and pointed out that soccer has become so popular in Andover in such a short period of time and that if the Association is to continue providing an excellent program to the youth in town, it is imperative that every parent become involved in some way. Clinics will be held for prospective coaches and assistant coaches from time to time during the year. In addition the Association is looking for people willing to help in lining fields, reporting results of games, purchasing equipment, scheduling the games, etc. He urged everyone to volunteer to help when registering their

Ballardvale Youth Attend Sports Camp

Susan Heidt, Greg Baker, Ricky Brouillard, Rodney Hollenbeck, Kevin Hollenbeck, and Rev. David Hollenbeck from the Ballardvale United Church are attending Sports Camp at Camp Aldersgate in North Scituate, R.I. The camp is owned by the United Methodist Church, and each year a variety of camping programs are offered to persons of all ages in the Southern New England Conference. Small group discussions, environmental seminars and worship services are part of Sports week, as well as a wide variety of athletic clinics to teach the basic skills of particular sports. One highlight will be a trip to the Pawtucket Red Sox Stadium for an afternoon clinic taught by Red Sox players.

The camp has recently installed a high and low rope walk similar to those used in the Outward Bound Program so the youth will have a chance to try these skills.

Ruth Seniors Strengthen Lead

By Rick Harrison

The Andover Senior Babe Ruth baseball team strengthened its hold on first place in the Greater-Lawrence League last week, stretching its win streak through six games with a pair of victories over Lawrence National.

The 7-1 and 6-5 triumphs boosted Andover's overall record to 6-1, giving the locals a comfortable lead over second place Chelmsford which stands at 5-4.

Andover, 7-1

Andover fell behind 1-0 in the first inning, but outbursts in the second and fourth combined with the steady pitching of righthander Frank Pelletier boosted the leaders to victory.

Pelletier, hiking his personal record to 3-1, allowed three hits, walked five and struck out six.

Brian Riddick and lefthander Mike Pacheco did the hurling for Lawrence National, surrendering five hits and striking out nine. However, the pair also issued nine walks.

National jumped ahead in the opening stanza when Domingo Infante drew a leadoff walk, Mike Hornby worked Pelletier for a two-out walk, and Orlando Rosado belted an RBI double.

Hornby also tried to score on the twobagger to rightfield, but was cut down at the plate with catcher Brian Kelly slapping on the tag.

The winners picked up three runs in the second frame with just one hit.

Brian Kelly, Rich Gusini and Bill Eaton walked, Steve Rathbun reached on a run-scoring infield error, and Jim Lacourse drove in a run with an infield single.

Andover added four more runs in the fourth, with the big hits an RBI single to rightfield by Lacourse and an RBI double by Kelly.

Lacourse led all hitters in the game with 2-for-4.

Andover, 6-5

Lefthander Bob Heidt and righty Fred Foote combined to pitch Andover past Lawrence National once again, with Foote's excellent two-and-one third inning relief sting preserving the victory.

Heidt (3-0) worked the first four-and-two-thirds frames before his own wildness forced an early exit. The southpaw permitted only three hits and one earned run, striking out seven and walking five.

Foote collected the save by tossing hitless ball during his stint.

Andover chalked up a pair of runs in the first on a walk to Chris O'Hara, a double by Brian Kelly and an infield single by Heidt.

The locals added four more runs in the second, with the key safeties an RBI double by Foote and run-scoring singles from Jim Lacourse and O'Hara. Marty Soloman also drove in a run with a fielder's choice.

Two singles, a walk and an infield error accounted for two Lawrence National runs in the second.

Mike Hornby tripled and scored on Orlando Rosado's infield out in the third, and Lawrence added two more runs in the fourth on four walks and one Andover error.

ELECTRICAL MECHANICAL ASSEMBLERS

We are currently looking for highly motivated people who are interested in a career in electronics. You will be soldering, wiring, wire wrapping, inserting components on PC Boards and learning the basics of building mechanical assemblies. At least 6 months experience in any one of these areas is desirable, but previous work experience is not necessary.

ASSEMBLERS

Our rapid growth has created the need for several experienced assemblers. Ideally, you should have 6 months experience in hand insertion of electronic components such as resistors, I.C.'s and capacitors on PC Boards and be able to read visual aids and/or assembly drawings.

SOLDER/TOUCH-UP

We are looking for experienced people for touch-up of PC Boards after wave solder. You should be able to identify solder shots, bridging, as well as be familiar with E.C.O.'s on PC Boards. If you have had previous experience in hand-wiring and can read assembly drawings, you will be interested in a future in electronics with a leader in the field.

SOLDERERS

3-6 months hands-on soldering required. Some heavy lifting involved.

RE-WORK SPECIALISTS

Perform re-work operations on PC Boards. Know color code, semi-conductor and I.C. configurations; ability to recognize poor solder joints and know E.C.O. prints.

We offer excellent wages, generous fringe benefits and an informal atmosphere for advancement and growth.

PRICING FOR BEST PROFIT

Without any doubt, the most important element of selling a home is placing the right value on it. When you get right down to it, it's the price, more than anything else, which will dictate how fast (or slow); how profitable (or unprofitable) it will sell.

What is the best selling price? National experience has proven conclusively that if your property is priced at inception within 5% above fair market value range, the chance of making a clean, top dollar sale during the early stages is TEN TIMES greater than otherwise.

Buyers buy by comparison. Properties not competing favorably do not sell. Overpricing at inception causes properties to become shopworn; valuable time and buyers are lost forever. Ultimately, all properties sell for their true value by comparison — or less if exposed initially at an inflated price. How do you arrive at this "5% plus" key value? Drop into our office if you're thinking of selling your home and we'll show you.

Employee Pacts Near Agreement

Contract agreements with municipal employee groups may be near completion, with the Department of Public Works employees meeting with the town manager this past week on a new pact.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark said this week that the firefighters union had signed their agreement with the town last Friday. It was the first time in several years a new contract was signed before the old one expired.

Discussions with the DPW union have taken place during the week and Clark said that apparently the town and union are near agreement.

The contract with the police department has another year to run.

All of the agreements are dependant on town meeting approval of the new benefits next year. Since the new salary agreements will probably result in the town budget being in excess of tax cap provisions, the voters will have to ultimately make that decision, Clark said.

The manager also noted that new industrial development which will be reflected in next year's town revenues, may also assist in meeting the financial obligations to which the town agreed.

Industrial acres adjoins Den Rock Park in Lawrence.

The only remaining large industrially developable area is in Lowell Junction, where there are 140 vacant acres. Many of them have access or wetland problems, Spiegel said. An interchange with Route 93 might help matters, he said.

The inventory of industrial land, which Spiegel called "an incredible piece of work," was done by the department of community development and planning under director Rhys Kear.

Inspections of assessors' maps were made to determine the owners of industrially zoned land, about 160 on-site inspections of properties were made, and phone calls to major land owners were made to determine their plans for development.

The information was organized by dividing the town's industrial land into ten areas, and listing the type of industry on each lot, if any, the acreage by lot, and the owner.

Spiegel said the addition will be made to the inventory of names of people to contact for information on each lot.

The industrial development commission will use the information to help potential developers decide if there is land in Andover suitable to their industrial needs. "We take them by the hand and take them right through the community," Spiegel said.

"The reason the big deals come through is because we work it out ahead of time," he added. "Big deals" include Raytheon, Polaroid and Hewlett-Packard.

Spiegel said he thinks that Andover's industrial development to date has been well planned, pointing out that industry have moved in without creating traffic problems in the commercial district. And the kind of clean industry the town wanted, according to a 1975 survey, has been sought.

He said that when land currently zoned industrial, with the possible addition of the Cormier land, runs out, Andover should attain a good industrial balance. Light, clean industry will be footing about 22 percent of the town's tax burden.

were far ahead in their earlier heats. But an official missed their not-ready signal before the final, and started the race. The Andover girls started far behind the other, but even so, managed to pull up to fourth place.

Other girls representing Andover at the nationals included Karen Woods, of Willingboro, N.J., the cox; Tia Doggett of Edina, Minn.; and Aimee Thorpe of Simsbury, Conn.

Sea Bird.

The female phalarope, a sea bird, is more brightly colored than the male; she courts the male, and he incubates the eggs and cares for the young. These birds breed and nest on islands in the Arctic, Massachusetts Audubon notes.
